

Aetrex Cleats Orthotics are the first collection engineered specifically to perform in cleated athletic footwear for sports such as soccer, football and baseball. The innovative design & advanced material technology lessens fatigue to your feet and ankles while helping to absorb the shock and shear forces often associated with blisters.

Aetrex's strategically placed, proprietary Lynco® arch support helps to control over-pronation and biomechanically align your body to help prevent common conditions such as Plantar Fasciitis, Metatarsalgia and Achilles Tendonitis. Cleats are notorious for being unfriendly to feet, but with Aetrex Cleats Orthotics you'll reduce the likelihood of injuries to help you stay on the field competing in comfort.
